LANGHORNE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION SPRING 2012 SEASON

Langhorne Athletic Association had great success with the creation of the new sports program that has been played on playgrounds for many years – KICKBALL! This sport is making a comeback and is played by all ages all over the world. Anyone can play; it is great exercise, a venue for meeting new friends, being active and having fun. The Langhorne Kickball League is a coed league for both youth and adult divisions.

Youth Division:

Youth players register as individuals and LAA will form the teams. You may request to play with friends. Team jerseys will be provided and volunteer coaches are needed. Each team will play a 7 week season including the season-end tournament. Each game lasts 6 innings or approximately 1 hour. Divisions may change based on actual registrations received.
